Half Term Holiday

Just a reminder that we finish tomorrow, 24th May at 3.15pm for a one-week school half term holiday. We will re-open on Monday 3rd June, bright and early at 8.40am. We all hope that you enjoy this spring bank holiday week off.

Lost Property

We will be displaying all our lost property today and tomorrow after school between the two school buildings. Please come along to see if you recognise anything as yours and take it home. Any items left uncollected after tomorrow will be donated to a local charity shop. A reminder to put your child's name into all the belongings they bring to school, and all their uniform and sports kit too. Any named items are returned to the class rather than ending up in lost property, thank you.

Poetry at Mellers

On Thursday June 20th Dominic Berry, our regular visiting poet, is visiting us again for the day. He is going to perform a whole book in assembly at 9.00am and we would really like parents to attend too. He will also be doing a book sale of his own books after school; all his books are £7.00 to buy. Please join us then if you can.

Midday Supervisor Vacancy

The closing date for our midday supervisor vacancy ready for September is this Friday 7th June; if you would like to apply or know someone who would please call into the office for an application form and further details.

Have a lovely half term holiday!

Amanda Dawson, Headteacher

Word and Grammar of the Week

The Power of Music!

Music can transform lives - for some children, it is the only area where they can excel or truly be themselves. Nottingham Music Service are raising funds so that together we can help more children across Nottingham to access the power of music.
