Poetry at Mellers

Don't forget that today Dominic Berry, our regular visiting poet, is in school for the day. We hope you enjoyed his assembly this morning, he will also be selling his books after school; all his books are £7.00 to buy.

Word and Grammar of the Week

We thought we would share our word and grammar of the week with you, so that you can further help your children with their English skills:

Coat Collection

Thank you to everyone who donated their old coats and winter wear for charity. Your generosity will make a huge difference around the world to people less fortunate than ourselves. Thank you once again.

Safety Surface on the Trim Trail

I'm sure you will agree that the new safety surface beneath the trim trail looks really smart. It will make playing on that equipment much safer. A reminder though that if children play on the trim trail either before or after school they are doing so whilst being their parents' responsibility; therefore school is not liable for any injuries that occur at those times.

Food Bank at Mellers

Our school food bank is in need of more donations! Please bring any non-perishable foods like cereals, pasta, rice, tinned foods etc to reception if you can. Those families in crisis also need toiletries too, so if possible please have a sort out at home and bring in any unused shampoos, soaps, nappies or sanitary products; they will really make a difference to someone in the future. Thank you for being so kind and generous, these are real Mellers qualities!

Meanwhile the new artificial grass in the nursery playground is coming on nicely; it will make such a lovely difference for those little children and their outdoor learning.

Miss Lin's Leaving Assembly

Don't forget to join us tomorrow, Friday 21st June at 9am for our assembly to say goodbye to Miss Lin. We will be celebrating all things Chinese. We look forward to seeing you all!

The Book People Bus is coming to Mellers!

We are thrilled to tell you that next Thursday, 27th June the Book People are bringing their book bus to school. They will be selling really good value books from the bus, which will be up on the tarmac area behind the new key stage 2 hall. Make sure you call in and grab some bargains; they make great gifts for birthdays and dare we say it.....Christmas!!!

Have a lovely weekend!
